> WORK OUT IN STADIUM. Shattuck Shows Fine Form in Hammer Throw.

Boston, May 28 .- Jogging around the stadium track, hurdling the barriers and tossing the hammer and shot, the athletes of the University of Callfornia had a light workout today in the Harvard stadium, where on Friday and Saturday they will meet the stu-dent athletes of other parts of the country in the national intercollegiate championships.

Weather conditions were poor and the performances without attempt at top speed, but the hammer throwing of Shattuck of the Gold and Yellow team commanded the attention of the few spectators. The Californian in his trials repeatedly threw the wired missile more than 160 feet, and one of his heaves was estimated to exceed 170

The ten men reported themselves in good condition, except for a few complaints of slight dizziness, the effect of their long ride across the continent.
